Help Us Keep Our Blessing Box Stocked!

We are currently looking for donations to help keep our Blessing Box stocked with items that can make a real difference for those in need.
Last week, we had the opportunity to speak with someone who regularly uses the Blessing Box. We asked him what items would be most helpful, and our conversation gave us some ideas for things we can provide that meet the needs of people who may not have access to electricity or running water.
Here are some of the items we are currently looking for:
Easy-to-open canned foods — preferably cans with pull tabs that can be eaten at room temperature. Some examples include: Ravioli SpaghettiOs Beef stew Other canned meals that don't require heating
Drinks: Bottled water Juice
Toiletries & Personal Care Items: Dry shampoo Wet wipes Tissues Paper towels Toilet paper
Every donation, big or small, helps us provide practical items to our neighbors who are going through difficult circumstances. Thank you for helping us make our Blessing Box a place where people can find not only food, but also dignity, care, and a helping hand. ♡
Thank you for your generosity and for helping us bless others!

St. John, Metropolitan of Kiev

A Bulgarian, he went to Kiev in 1080 and at once achieved such eminence that he was quickly raised to the rank of Metropolitan. He wrote a letter to Pope Clement, in which he denounced him for certain practices that the Roman Church had introduced. He governed the Church for eighty years, and entered peacefully into rest in 1089.
