Holy Martyr Severian

He was a nobleman of Sebaste. At the time of the martyrdom of the Forty Martyrs of Sebaste, he protected them in prison, encouraging and serving them. After their glorious death, he was also arrested, whipped and tortured for Christ, and finally hanged from a tree with a heavy stone round his neck and another hanging from his feet. Praising God for everything, he breathed his last in the reign of the Emperor Licinius, in the year 320

The Prologue from Ochrid
